The map below shows the development of the village of Simperton between 1995 and the present.

Intro: Paraphrase the Question

The development of the village of Simperton from 1995 to now is illustrated in the diagram.

Para 2: Overview Paragraph colon

Overall, a quick glance reveals that the area witnessed some remarkable changes: the farmland was changed to a golf course and the fishing market was replaced with apartments. It is also worth pointing out that the forest park was removed and a tennis court was constructed.

Para 3: MB1

Turning to the details, it can be seen that

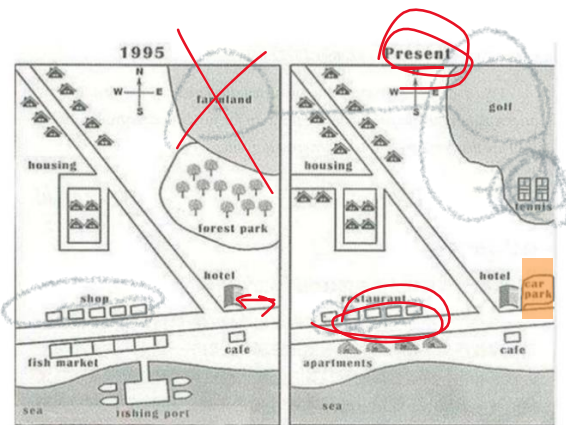

1 In 1995, the houses were located to the North West of the village.

2 The farmland was removed and replaced with a golf course.

Normally this word is for Education

3 ... and tennis courts were added in place of the forest park

4 In 1995, the shops were located in the South West of the map. They have been converted into restaurants. Orants. been v3

Past action: they changed the shops [finished]

Results / consequences remain NOW:

Passive Present Perfect:

5 A car park has been added adjacent to the hotel

instead of it = sounds (not high level)

MB2: ~~'demolished from'~~ no preposition is possible

1. The

The fish market was removed and replaced with apartments

2.  = X

The fishing port was demolished.

The fishing port was removed from the coast

Any land by the sea (beach land or not)

3. Housing  in N.W.

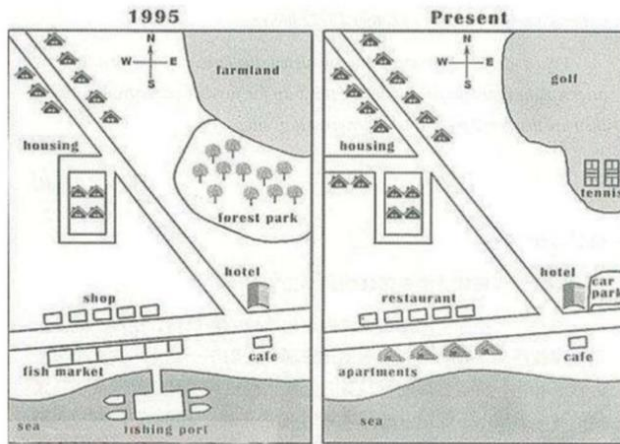

It is clear that housing has increased moderately now compared to the year of 1995 in the North West part of the village.

4.   Natural: The café remained in the same place

From memory and as quick as you can...
